DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3, 6, 13, 14, 22 and 23 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, 14 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Popovic et al. [US 4,979,149].

Claim 1, Popovic et al. discloses a switch [figure 3] comprising a first, second and third beams [2] movable relative to each other and arranged with constant spacing from one another; and voltage applying means [9, col. 5 lines 19-30] for providing a direct current potential to the first, second and third beams and applying a driving force to move the first, second and third beams [from position 2,3 to 2,4 and visa-versa].

Claim 3, Popovic et al. discloses that the first, second and third beams are arranged with a spacing satisfying a predetermined isolation [figure 3].

Claim 14, Popovic et al. discloses that any of the first, second and third beams are formed of a metal [layer 12].

Claim 23, Popovic et al. discloses that the drive force is electrostatic [col. 5 lines 19-30].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 6, 13 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Popovic et al. [US 4,979,149].

Claim 6, Popovic et al. discloses the claimed invention except for changing the spring constant of the beam by changing the shape of the beam. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to change the shape of the beam in order to obtain a desired spring constant since it was known in the art that changing the shape of the deflection beam will alter its spring constant.

Claim 13, Popovic et al. discloses that the claimed invention with the exception of creating a group of switches by arranging a plurality of switches according to claim 1 in parallel. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to group a plurality of switches according to claim 1 in parallel in order to create a memory device to store information [abs].

Claim 22, Popovic et al. discloses that the claimed invention with the exception of any of the first second and third beams is different in thickness from an adjacent one thereof. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to change the thickness of the beam in order to modify its actuation voltage threshold.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2,4-5,9-11,15-17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
